HABITATION, COLOR AND LANGUAGE DIFFER, BUT ALL MEN ARE BROTHERS BY BLOOD

I am using for a text Acts 17:26: "And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation."

God has set the bounds where men shall dwell. God has made all nations and we are talking about our blood. One race doesn't want the blood of another race, and yet we are dying for want of life, for blood is life. That's true! A certain chapter of our Red Cross rejects the use of the blood of a Negro for use in a man who is White in color. That doesn't make sense, for color is only skin deep. I never go to a butcher shop and ask for a piece of a white cow nor a piece of a black cow. I want a good steak. All that God wants to see in us is a good heart, whether it is in a white or colored man. Men are foolish to consider the questions of color when the Bible plainly tells us that out of one blood God made all nations of men to dwell upon the face of the earth and set the bounds of their habitation.

Whether the man is black, white or yellow, the blood of Adam, the first man, flows through his veins. God never made but one man. In order to keep blood flowing in the veins, you must eat the proper foods from which blood is made. The foods which you eat such as cabbage, chicken and beef and other foods go down in to the stomach after being pulverized. In the stomach the food is mixed with different acids and juices and then through certain natural processes, the food seeps through a hole in the stomach and goes into the intestines and some of it turns to blood and enters the veins from which the blood passes into all parts of the body. So if you eat chicken and I eat chicken, if you eat beef and I eat beef, and if you eat cabbage and I eat cabbage, then you and I still have the same blood nourished by the same kind of food. But if you were eating something produced by outer space and I were eating food, then that may give you a different kind of blood.

Notwithstanding, my precious ones, "Out of one blood God made all nations that dwell upon the face of the earth and hath set the bounds of their habitation."

Since God has set the bounds of man's habitation, races are separated by nature in a way that does not cause embarrassment or resentment, or give support to the ridiculous theory that the blood is different. They are native to certain environments by the laws of nature, and man's laws establishing a practice of segregation, are always going to result in discord and racial differences. Races may differ. Color may differ. Languages may differ. These differences provide the distinction that make it possible to identify the people. But they do not represent differences in the blood. There would be peace, understanding and fellowship among the races which would make it possible for us to advance in Christian character if we'd stop trying to force segregation because we consider one race inferior to another. In a course of time, any attempt to enforce such a law will fail in its purpose. No matter who you are or how powerful you are, such practices will undermine your foundation and destroy your nation for no nation is stronger than its weakest link. The enemy can come in and destroy and undermine through the animosity we are stirring through this senseless policy. If we have a strong nation by having each individual standing together as one, then no communist or God forgetting nation can hurt us, for God is for oneness in righteousness. If you are God's government is a holy government, and its citizens are saints.

Holiness is clean from home to the Church, and from the Church back home.

God gave the Holy Spirit to encourage you. Don't worry when men don't encourage you. Just be filled with the Spirit.

You've got to have the Spirit of God to keep from bowing to the flesh.

No one can have a hope in God and be disappointed.

One thing about loving Jesus: everybody can do it without anyone getting jealous.

Nothing brings knowledge to the mind of man like the Word of God.

If you learn to be thankful, you will have lots to be thankful for.

A lie might get you by for a while, but hope of an ultimate triumph can be found only in the truth.

You are wasting your time if you are not making secure your chance to have eternal life.

It would be better that we had not been born than that we die without hope of eternal life.

The Church is the light of the world. Don't let the bulb get so sooty that the world won't be able to see the light.

one in righteousness, nothing can upset you. But you are not righteous when you have respect of persons. Segregation is natural, if it is voluntary. People will segregate themselves. Let them alone. If you attempt to do it, you will undermine your structure. Don't forget that.

The object of segregation is to prevent people of different races from getting together socially and sexually. Segregating you in a theatre or on a public conveyance is only to the end that you don't get together socially so that you can't contact each other. That is true because social contact usually ends in sexual contact. Therefore, the object of segregation by keeping you out of certain neighborhoods or prohibiting your attendance at this place or the other place is to keep you from getting together socially so that you won't get together sexually.

May I make this statement perfectly plain to you from the Word of God? God, in creating all beasts, cattle, birds and creeping things upon the earth separated them by creating them after their kind. This is the way it reads in the first Chapter of Genesis and the 25th verse, "And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and everything that creepeth upon the earth after his kind:..." Now God created many different kinds of birds, but He segregated them one from another by creating them after their kind. That is to say every one of these birds of feather all have sexual organs that are different even though they flock and fly together. You have never seen a goose mating with a turkey. You've never seen a guinea mating with a duck. All of them have feathers and they all run together, but God wanted to separate them and He knew how to do it. You have never seen a horse mating with a cow, no! God separated them Himself by creating their sexual organs differently, one from the other.

Segregation is a natural course but you can't enforce it upon any race of people. They, themselves, if you will let them alone, will set their own bounds and have their own habitation. For example, go to New York where all nations of men more or less, are gathered. You will find Italians in an Italian community. You will find Greeks in a Greek community. You will find Jews in a Jewish community. And you will find Negroes in a Negro community. Harlem is only about the distance of a bus or subway ride from Broadway. Five hundred thousand Negroes live in Harlem and it takes only a ten cent fare to get from Harlem to Broadway, the great white-light center.

You may go down on Broadway at any time that you want to where Negroes can go to any theatre or hotel or public place they want to, but because no law is enforced to try to make them stay in Harlem, they stay there. Now you can't find one hundred people of color on Broadway hardly through the day. You will only see a very few of them in the theatres down there. But in Washington, DC, we segregate. A notable gentleman like Judge Cobb, a man who graced the Bench in the Nation's Capital for many years, was denied admittance to the Trans-Lux Theatre. They said to him, as it were, "You can't come in here because you're a colored man." My precious friends and my fellow citizens and Christians, you're damning your nation.

America is the greatest nation upon the face of the earth. There's no place like it because we've followed, to a certain extent, the principles of the Pilgrim Fathers. But now, we are departing from that way. Though the Negroes were slaves, God freed them by causing northern white men to realize slavery was disgraceful. The white brother, the fellow who was made out of the same blood, delivered him. There are not only Negroes against segregation, but there are decent, upright, Christian white people who hate the thought of discriminating against another man. Let people alone. They segregate themselves. No nation should pass laws that segregate. If you do, you can't teach others. That's our weakness.

For your learning and for your information, my precious ones, we find these words said in Genesis 1:26-28a. Listen to what it says here: "And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth."

God spoke these words to His angelic companions after He had made the beasts of the field, etc. Man is an intelligent being. You don't have to segregate him. When he finds the kind of company that is not fit for him to associate with, he segregates himself. He is made in the image and likeness of God. Do you think for one time that God would establish a division between His offspring? No! Be wise, good folks! Understand!

God is not a man. He's God. When He created man as male and female, you will find that He gave them a command in verses 27 and 28 of the same Chapter mentioned above. "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it:..."

Now if God had wanted to segregate and separate the different races as He did the beasts and birds, He would have given them different sexual organs as He did the animals. Do you get it? You can't do it. Every man, whether he is black, brown, white, yellow or red, has the same sexual organ. If you let them alone, they will segregate themselves because of their habits, because of their habitation, and because of their natural desire to be together with those whom they understand.

Man is a peculiar animal and because you tell him that he can't do this thing or that thing, he will want more than ever to do it. So, you determine our structure of civilization and you weaken your nation when one race segregates against the other while they are so closely woven together as the colored and white races in America are.

The day has come when men of both sides of the color line see the foolishness of the attempt of a nation to segregate. We are trying to instruct Russia on her treatment of their people, and she takes every act which is against society that we commit here in this country and make propaganda out of it. They are only nursing us over in Europe. You watch it, if we don't change our course, God Himself, will let the heathen come in. I don't care anything about our being a Godly country, such has always been done by God. When those who profess to be His representatives fail to represent Him as He is, He then takes a heathen and whips them. After He gives you a good beating, He will turn around and have mercy on you. After that He will push the heathen out. I don't want that to happen to me so I'm going to do right first.

Why do you see so many mulatto people? Why do you see people of all colors? It is because you can't segregate socially. The Negro Race doesn't have anything to worry about concerning marrying some white woman. The White Race has given us every color we want. We have them as white as they come. We have them as black as they come. We have them brown and yellow. Yes, we have! The Colored Race is the most beautiful race upon the face of the earth. You may pick any color you want. The Negro is not desirous of marrying a white woman, but if he does, he can find them white enough right in the race.

There is no difference, but some think that because they segregate the race, they can have a race of pure blood, but they don't realize that there is no difference in the color of blood. We don't get color from our blood. The Scripture plainly tells you that out of one blood God made all nations. All of the blood that comes from a white man, a red man, a yellow man, or a brown man, is red. Blood does not change the color.

After God destroyed the old world because of the sins of man, He separated the nations one from another and set the bounds of their habitation by changing their language. That is how they

The Holy Bible Word Puzzle Rules

1. Find the "Book" given at the top of the first column. Then find the "Chapter" and "Verse" indicated beside the "Book".
 2. To find the "Word", begin at the first word in the "Verse" and count each succeeding word until you have counted the number indicated on the table.
 3. Write the "Word" on the blank line in the "Answer" column.
 4. Repeat this operation for each book listed in the puzzle.
 5. Reading each word from the top to bottom in the Answer column, you will have a familiar Bible passage.
 6. Then search the Scriptures to find the answer. The use of a concordance is recommended. Quote where the passage is found.
 7. Please use the King James Version of the Holy Bible.
 8. Mail answer to: Happy News Publishing Co., 2030 Georgia Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20001. If you do not wish to cut the paper, you may submit your answer on plain paper.
 9. The answer to the puzzle should be postmarked by the fifteenth (15th) of the month for publication in our next issue.
 10. Letters must be limited to forty (40) words and are published as space will allow.
- Editors reserve the right to edit as needed.

Mrs. Michaux's Gospel Message to All

A Warning to Our Precious People Found in Deuteronomy 28th Chapter

For the benefit of all people, especially for those who may not believe there is a God, and do not believe in the Bible as being the Word of God on account of false religions. Under the Mosaic Law, the yearly sacrifices of the blood of bullocks, pigeons, and doves and so on, which the people offered up year by year did not make them thereunto perfect. That being a fact, God provided a better way. He took His Word and wrapped It in human flesh and sent It down, being born through the Virgin Mary. And we are told in the Word of God that at 12 years old, He (Jesus) began to be about His Father's business and stayed in His Father's will and completed the task that His Father gave Him to do. Then He went on the cross and sacrificed His heart's blood; and His blood atoned to take our sins away.

I know for my own personal self that He can accomplish what He came to accomplish; for I confessed my sins to Him and forsook them, and ever since that day, there has been a radical change in my life because I have something within that holdeth the rein, and that something is the Spirit of the Living God which He promised to all believers that will walk in the Light. "But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ, his Son, cleanseth us from all sin", as sayeth I John, 1st chapter, 7th verse.

Deuteronomy 28th Chapter which reads as follows: Blessings for obedience. . . Cursings for disobedience.

"AND it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth: And all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God.

"Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field. Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep. Blessed shall be thy basket and thy store.

Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

"The LORD shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee to be smitten before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and flee before thee seven ways.

The LORD shall command the blessing upon thee in thy storehouses, and in all that thou settest thine hand unto; and he shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

"The LORD shall establish thee an holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, and walk in his ways.

And all people of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of the LORD; and they shall be afraid of thee.

And the LORD shall make thee

Mrs. Mary E. Michaux, co-founder plenteous in goods, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers to give thee.

"The LORD shall open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow.

And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

"And thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

"But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee:

Cursed shall thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field.

Cursed shall be thy basket and thy store.

"Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

Cursed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and cursed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

The LORD shall send upon thee cursing, vexation, and rebuke, in all that thou settest thine hand unto for to do, until thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly; because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken me.

"The LORD shall bring thee, and thy king which thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers have known; and there shalt thou serve other gods, wood and stone.

And thou shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all nations whither the LORD shall lead thee.

Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt gather but little in; for the locust shall consume it.

"Thou shalt plant vineyards, and dress them, but shalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes; for the worms shall eat them.

Thou shalt have olive trees throughout all thy coasts, but thou shalt not anoint thyself with the oil; for thine olive shall cast his fruit.

Thou shalt beget sons and daughters, but thou shalt not enjoy them; for they shall go into captivity.

All thy trees and fruit of thy land shall the locust consume.

"The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low.

He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: he shall be the head and thou shalt be the tail.

Moreover all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed; because thou hearkenedst not unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee:

"And they shall be upon thee for a sign and for a wonder, and upon thy seed for ever.

Because thou servedst not the LORD thy God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things; Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies which the LORD shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.

"The LORD shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand;

A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor shew favour to the young:

And he shall eat the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed: which also shall not leave thee either corn, wine, or oil, or the increase of thy kine, or flocks of thy sheep, until he have destroyed thee.

"And thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the LORD thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee:

So that the man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave;

So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he hath nothing left him in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates.

"The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure

Calling All Youth

"And all thy children shall be taught of the Lord; and great shall be the peace of thy children. In righteousness shalt thou be established; thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear: and from terror; for it shall not come near thee."

(Isaiah 54:13,14)

Michael III, Age 10 Washington, D.C.

CALLING ALL YOUTH is featured each month to encourage our youth of all ages to grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. We solicit your comments, questions and answers on any topic listed on our Youth Page. Your response may be printed the following month provided space is available and it is received before the next publication goes to press. It is our desire "That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace" (Psalm 144:12).

Please mail your letters to: Happy News Publishing Co. 2030 Georgia Avenue, NW Washington, DC 20001-3087

All letters should be postmarked by the tenth of the month. Thank you and may God bless you always.

MEMORY VERSES

"MAKE a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands. Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing. Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture (Psalm 100: 1-3)."

In September 1620, a small ship called the Mayflower left Plymouth, England, with 102 passengers—an assortment of religious separatists travelling to a new land where they could practice their faith and live in freedom and prosperity. After a treacherous 66-day journey across the Atlantic Ocean, these pilgrims, as they became known, dropped anchor near the tip of Cape Cod, Massachusetts, far north of their intended destination. One month later, the Mayflower crossed into Massachusetts Bay, where the group began the work of establishing a village at Plymouth. Throughout that first brutal winter, most of the group remained on board the ship, where they suffered from exposure, scurvy and outbreaks of contagious diseases. By early spring, reportedly, only about half of them survived. In March, these survivors moved ashore, where they were visited by an Abenaki Native American who greeted them in English. Several days later, that Native American returned with another Native American, Squanto, a Pawtuxet tribe member. Squanto taught the ailing Pilgrims to cultivate corn, extract sap from maple trees, catch fish and avoid poisonous plants.

In November 1621, after their first successful corn harvest, the Pilgrims hosted a three-day celebratory feast with their Native American allies to thank God for His blessings. Today, this "first Thanksgiving" is remembered as the genesis of our nationally recognized one-day celebration of Thanksgiving.

May each of us remember to thank God for His many blessings each day of our lives.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

"...Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen" (St. Matthew 6:9-13).

LET US PRAY THIS PRAYER AT NOON

"...Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God" (Joel 2:17b)?

COMMANDMENT SECTION

"Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name. For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations (Psalm 100: 4-5)."

Young People Respond to the Questions:

How does your family celebrate Thanksgiving? and/or Do you know why we celebrate Thanksgiving?

Thanksgiving is when everybody comes to our house and we stand in a circle and share how God has blessed us. My mom cooks chicken and black beans.

By Bella, Age 5 Laurel

We go to Aunt Debbie's house. There, we get to see a lot of our family. We play games, eat and have a lot of fun.

We celebrate Thanksgiving to give thanks to God.

By Chloe, Age 10 Upper Marlboro

At Thanksgiving, we pray. We sing and say what we are thankful for. We pray: "Be present at our table, Lord, here and everywhere adored. Bless these gifts and grant that we may feast in Paradise with thee."

By James, Age 4 Laurel

I go to North Carolina to see my cousins.

We celebrate Thanksgiving to give thanks to God. I am thankful for Atone, for my grandfather and grandmother, and for all of my family.

By Michael, III, Age 10 Washington, D.C.

My family celebrates Thanksgiving by going to my aunt's house. There, we eat and enjoy ourselves with people we haven't seen for a while. We also list the things that we are thankful for.

By Jasmine, Age 16 Landover

At Thanksgiving, our family comes to our house. We play for a few minutes, then we eat turkey, macaroni and cheese, and mashed potatoes.

I am thankful for my mom and dad and for my whole family.

became scattered. When people don't understand one another, they move into a neighborhood where they can talk to one another, they are changing their language, not their color. When man attempted to build a tower to heaven and be one in sin, God saw that it wasn't good. Thus, He separated the nations upon the face of the earth and set their bounds and habitation that they might be scattered here and there and everywhere. You will find in the 11th Chapter of Genesis reading from the 1st to the 9th Verses, these words: "AND the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech. And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there. And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar. And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth. And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded. And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do. Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech. So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city. Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth."

Sunday School Lessons for the Month of November

The lessons for this month were reviewed by Elder David Green. He was a teacher of the junior boys class between 1994 and 2000 at the Church of God Sunday School, Newport News, VA.

LESSON 44 – November 3, 2019
SUBJECT: Out of Egypt

GOLDEN TEXT: “Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years. And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt” (Exodus 12:40-41).

PRINTED SCRIPTURE TEXT: Exodus 12:29 And it came to pass, that at midnight the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle.

30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

31 And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said.

32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and bless me also.

33 And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We be all dead men.

34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneadingtroughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment:

36 And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they lent unto them such things as they required. And they spoiled the Egyptians.

37 And the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand on foot that were men, beside children.

38 And a mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, even very much cattle.

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victual.

40 Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years.

41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.

42 It is a night to be much observed unto the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this is that night of the LORD to be observed of all the children of Israel in their generations.

LESSON DISCUSSION

Of all the plagues the Lord pronounced upon Egypt through His servant Moses, the death of the firstborn of each uncovered household was the final and most horrific plague Egyptians encountered. This plague affected firstborn family members, cattle, royalty as well as incarcerated persons. Firstborns not covered by the blood, died at midnight (See Exodus 12:29-30). The Pharaoh, who continually resisted freeing slaves finally caved in and demanded that Moses and Aaron gather the Israelites and leave Egypt (See Exodus 12:31).

In anticipation of their departure, the children of Israel were in such haste to leave that they took with them dough that had not risen yet. Also, before their departure, they were given jewelry and garments by their Egyptian superiors (See Exodus 12:33-35) seems like an empty sentence – recommend adding why they were given the jewelry/clothing and or the significance the items in this context. A mixed multitude of people left Egypt with flocks, herds and much cattle (See Exodus 12:38). During their exodus from Egypt, they baked the unleavened dough which served as their meals. (See Exodus 12:39).

The Children of Israel were delivered from their bondage after 430 years of suffering and hardship (See Exodus 12:40-41). Even today, God is delivering those who call upon the name of Jesus from the bondage of sin. Romans 10:13: For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

LESSON 45 – November 10, 2019
SUBJECT: Pursuit of the Slaves

GOLDEN TEXT: “And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel: and the children of Israel went out with an high hand. But the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pihahiroth, before Baalzephon” (Exodus 14:8-9).

PRINTED SCRIPTURE TEXT: Exodus 13:17 And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not through the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, Lest peradventure the people repent when they see war, and they return to Egypt:

18 But God led the people about, through the way of the wilderness of the Red sea: and the children of Israel went up harnessed out of the land of Egypt.

19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he had straitly sworn the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you.

20 And they took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness.

21 And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night:

22 He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

14:1 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they turn and encamp before Pihahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, over against Baalzephon: before it shall ye encamp by the sea.

3 For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, They are entangled in the land, the wilderness hath shut them in.

4 And I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, that he shall follow after them; and I will be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; that the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD. And they did so.

5 And it was told the king of Egypt that the people fled: and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us?

6 And he made ready his chariot, and took his people with him:

7 And he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them.

8 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel: and the children of Israel went out with an high hand.

9 But the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pihahiroth, before Baalzephon.

LESSON DISCUSSION

To divert the Israelites from being discouraged by military opposition from the Philistines, God did not allow them to travel to the land of promise which was the easiest way, but through the way of the wilderness of the Red Sea. (See Exodus 13: 18).

Moses carried the bones of Joseph with them out of Egypt. A promise that the family of Jacob had sworn to keep, was now fulfilled (See Exodus 13:19). This promise was made in Genesis 50:25: “And Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence.”

As they travelled, the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of cloud and by night in a pillar of fire. By so doing, God assured them that they were going in the right direction and that God’s protection was always with them (See Exodus 13:21-22). God had Moses to purposely direct the children of Israel to encamp in a location where they would be vulnerable to the Egyptians near the Red Sea (See Exodus 14:3-).

After God hardened Pharaoh’s heart, the Pharaoh selected six hundred chariots, to overtake the Israelites and bring them back. Although the Egyptian army aggressively pursued, the children of Israel were never captured because Pharaoh's military units were all drowned in the Red Sea (See Exodus 14:27-31). This episode demonstrated God's great, mighty enormous power.

Psalm 27:1: "THE LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?" God's power not only surpasses all fear, but comforts those who believe in true deliverance through faith in Him.

LESSON 46 – November 17, 2019

SUBJECT: Crossing the Red Sea

GOLDEN TEXT: "And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided" (Exodus 14:21).

PRINTED SCRIPTURE TEXT: Exodus 14:10 And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and, behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were sore afraid: and the children of Israel cried out unto the LORD.

11 And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt?

12 Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

13 And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will shew to you to day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to day, ye shall see them again no more for ever.

14 The LORD shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace.

15 And the LORD said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward:

16 But lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over the sea, and divide it: and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea.

17 And I, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: and I will get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

18 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

19 And the angel of God, which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them:

20 And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night.

21 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided.

22 And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

LESSON DISCUSSION

As the Egyptians approached the Red Sea, many of the Israelites began to fear for their lives. Consequently, they cried out to God (See Exodus 14: 10). The same expressed fear caused the people to charge Moses with bringing them out of Egypt to be destroyed in the wilderness (See Exodus 14:11-12).

Exodus 14:13: "And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will shew to you to day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to day, ye shall see them again no more for ever." This declaration discouraged fear, but created heightened expectation to witness deliverance through the mighty hand of God.

God permitted Moses to go forward. In fact, He instructed Moses to lift his rod over the sea to divide it so that the Israelites might walk between walls of waters on dry ground. (See Exodus 14:14-16). To prevent the Egyptians from recapturing them, The Lord sent an angel of God in the form of a cloud pillar to act as a barrier between them (See Exodus 14:19-20).

By Moses obeying God's directives, a strong wind forced the sea to be divided. The children of Israel crossed the Red Sea on dry ground. The waters were like a wall unto their right and their left (See Exodus 14:21-22).

Believers in Christ need not fear in the day of adversity. God will fight their battles.

LESSON 47 – November 24, 2019

SUBJECT: Deliverance from Pharaoh's Army Out of Egypt

GOLDEN TEXT: "Thus the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore" (Exodus 14:30).

PRINTED SCRIPTURE TEXT: Exodus 14:23 And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 And it came to pass, that in the morning watch the LORD looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the Egyptians,

25 And took off their chariot wheels, that they drave them heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the LORD fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.

27 And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28 And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them; there remained not so much as one of them.

29 But the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore.

31 And Israel saw that great work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the LORD, and believed the LORD, and his servant Moses.

LESSON DISCUSSION

The children of Israel made their way safely to the other side of the Red Sea. When the pillar barrier was removed by God, the Egyptian army pursued after them right into the middle of the Red Sea (See Exodus 14:23). The Lord began to trouble the Egyptians by causing their chariot wheels to fall off to the point that they could not move (See Exodus 14:25).

In the midst of their confusion, God directed Moses to stretch his hand over the sea. Immediately the waters returned to their original place. In fact, the waters covered the chariots, horses and soldiers that commandeered them. As Egyptian soldiers drowned, the people of Israel saw evidence of God's Sovereign power. They stood amazed as dead soldiers washed up on the shoreline (See Exodus 14:26-31).

The awesome power of God tells us that we should continually praise Him for His good and miraculous works. Psalm 107:8: "Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!"

HABITATION, COLOR AND LANGUAGE DIFFER, BUT ALL MEN ARE BROTHERS BY BLOOD

They were divided because of their different languages. God confused them and they were scattered here and there upon the face of the earth. He did that so that He could cover the earth with them after they had come from the ark. The only thing that He had to do was to just change their language. Every Italian goes with an Italian so that he can understand his or her companion and come up learning that language. So they were divided not because of their color, but because their language was confounded.

Men will segregate themselves just as they see fit or are willing to do, but if you intend to try to enforce segregation, you will undermine the foundation of the nation. This is the best government that you've had. Pass the Civil Rights Law. Get through with it. Let the junk called segregation go out of the window and let the folks take care of it and they'll do it. You will find that if a fellow goes up to a fine looking café and he doesn't look very good himself, he will look at the café and then leave there and go on down the street looking for one that looks like he looks. Don't worry, but if you force it, he will go in there dirty. He will get into a public vehicle dirty. Let him alone — he will segregate himself. May God bless you and may you understand that difference in habitation, color and language does not indicate a difference in blood and will never justify a policy of segregation by a great Christian nation. May God bless you to hear and see. Amen.

obey the voice of the LORD thy God.

And it shall come to pass, that as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it.

"And the LORD shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone.

And among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest: but the LORD shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind:

And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee; and thou shalt fear day and night, and shalt have none assurance of thy life:

"In the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were even! and at even thou shalt say, Would God it were morning! for the fear of thine heart wherewith thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

And the LORD shall bring thee into Egypt again with ships, by the way whereof I spake unto thee, Thou shalt see it no more again: and there ye shall be sold unto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no shall buy you."

May God Bless you is my prayer.
